

ABOUT OUR SOCIETY

To achieve our aims we have a programme of events, talks and exhibitions. We carry out research, scan photographs, record memories and publish articles.

We organise and run Pembroke Museum with the support of Pembroke Civic Trust, West Wales Maritime Heritage Society & Pembroke Town Council.

We promote & raise funds for heritage projects to enhance Pembroke, currently focussing on the William Marshal statue and the Millpond Dragon Fountain.

Our events are free at entry unless otherwise stated and all are welcome. To cover running costs we raise funds by holding coffee mornings, raffles and Quiz Nights.

We welcome volunteers on the Committee, in the work of researching our past as well as manning the Museum – please contact us if you would like to get involved.

PUBLICATIONS

Our latest publication 'Ted the 'Welsh Goat Hero' is a memoir by D-Day Veteran, Ted Owens.

Our 'Through My Eyes' DVD of digital stories with accompanying book, traces the history of Pembroke through the individual stories of 45 people.

'From Mummer's Booth to Silver Screen' by Vicki Haggart is a gem of cinema history. It traces the fortunes of the Haggart family from travelling players & pioneer film makers to the closure of the last Haggarts' Cinema in Pembroke..

'Hancock's Shipbuilding Company in Pembroke Dock' by David James traces the history of this historic shipyard, now the home of WWMHS.
