

ABOUT OUR SOCIETY

Founded in 2010, Pembroke & Monkton Local History Society is a registered charity based in Pembroke Museum, Pembroke Town Hall.

To achieve our aims, as well as running Pembroke Museum, we carry out research, organise talks and exhibitions, record memories and publish articles and books

We promote & raise funds for heritage projects to enhance Pembroke, working closely with Pembroke Town Council. Our most recent achievement is the William Marshal statue.

Our events are free at entry unless otherwise stated and all are welcome. To cover running costs we raise funds by holding coffee mornings, raffles and other events. .

PUBLICATIONS

'Pembroke Remembers' is a memorial publication recalling the part played by Pembroke & District in WW1.

'Ted the Welsh Goat Hero' is a memoir by D-Day Veteran, Ted Owens.

Our 'Through My Eyes' DVD of digital stories with accompanying book, traces the history of Pembroke through the individual stories of 45 people.

'From Mummer's Booth to Silver Screen' by Vicki Haggart is a gem of cinema history. It traces the fortunes of the Haggart family from travelling players & pioneer film makers to the closure of the last Haggarts' Cinema in Pembroke..

'Hancock's Shipbuilding Company in Pembroke Dock' by David James traces the history of this historic shipyard.
